CLAUSES

FIRST. This agreement aims to establish the basis for mutual cooperation in the development of projects that include the below mentioned activities:

1. Perform actions to develop joint projects in teaching and research; organizing meetings and seminars as well as any other program of interest to both institutions.
2. To promote the exchange of students, researchers and personnel as well as the exchange of experiences in the fields of teaching, research and culture within the areas determined by mutual agreement.
3. Encourage the reciprocal exchange on topics such as research, postgraduate courses, doctoral courses, books, publications and other teaching materials.

SECOND. All cooperative activity shall be stated in specific agreements, clarifying terms, conditions and implementation procedures; appointing a representative from each institution, whom would be responsible for following up on the agreement.

THIRD. In the event that the specific agreement implies financial obligations for either party, it shall be expressed in it.

FOURTH. This agreement does not imply legal or financial commitment between the parties-signatories to them.

FIFTH. The consensus of this agreement is a declaration of intents aimed at promoting authentic relations of mutual benefit in the field of academic cooperation. Nothing herein agreed in any way shall affect the full right of ITSON to establish similar links with other universities. And also, shall not hinder Sathyabama Institute of Science and Technology to establish similar links with other universities, in addition to ITSON.

SIXTH. This agreement will last 3 years from the date of signature and may be renewed by expressed agreement of both parties. Where there is will to termination by either party, it shall be communicated to the other party six months in advance. Giving the case, the parties undertake thereafter to conclude the actions that had already begun.

In Witness whereof, have signed this Agreement in two copies and to one effect.
